1. Start by screwing the shaft into the barrel of the dart. Make sure it's tight but be careful not to over tighten as it might damage the threads.
2. Then, take your flights and insert them into the end of the shaft. The flights should be spread out evenly to form a "X" shape. This arrangement helps to stabilize the dart during flight and improves accuracy.