

What if my merchandise is damaged?

We carefully pack all orders to ensure safe delivery of your items. However, if you receive your order and the items are damaged or broken, report the damage/breakage immediately to the carrier. All packing material MUST be saved for postal inspection and a damage claim form MUST be completed before contacting us.