

Use: This hardy perennial is used as a pond plant.

Care: This plant, like many perennials, requires very little care. The main care needed is to remove all the dead stems/leaves at the end of the year. In coldest climates, drop to the bottom of the pond after trimming for best winter protection.