

Warranty Period

1. When a failure of the inner tank of a CAMPLUX tank water heater, installed in a single family, residential application and exposed to normal usage, occurs within three (3) years from the date of the original installation and is supplied with potable water, deemed not to be hard water, and such failure is proven to be a result of a defect in material or workmanship or within one (1) year if used in a non-single family residential application, or with hard water, CAMPLUX will furnish to such owner a new water heater of the then prevailing comparable model.
2. If any component part (other than the inner tank) is proven to be defective in material or workmanship within one (1) year from date of original installation in a single family, residential application used with potable water deemed not to be hard water or within one (1) year if used with hard water, or in other than a single family residential dwelling, CAMPLUX will furnish the Owner with a replacement of the defective part(s).
3. Verification of Date of Original Installation- When Owner can not verify or document the original date of installation, the warranty period begins on the date of manufacture marked on the tag affixed to the water heater.

Exclusions

1. This limited warranty shall be the exclusive warranty made by the CAMPLUX and is made in lieu of all other warranties, expressed or implied (whether written or oral), including, but not limited to, warranties or merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.
2. The CAMPLUX shall not be liable for any incidental, consequential, special or contingent damages or expenses arising, directly or indirectly, from any defect in the water heater or the use of the water heater.
3. The CAMPLUX shall not be liable for any water damage arising, directly or indirectly, from any defect in the water heater component part(s) or from its use.
4. CAMPLUX shall not be liable under this warranty if:
 - a) The water heater or any of its component parts has been subject to excessive water pressure, misuse, abuse, alteration, neglect or accident, or
 - b) The water heater has not been installed in accordance with the applicable local plumbing, electrical and/ or building code(s) and/or regulation(s), or

- c) The water heater has not been installed in accordance with the printed CAMPLUX's instructions, or
 - d) The water heater is not continuously supplied with potable water, otherwise described as dry firing.
 - e) The water heater is exposed to conditions resulting from floods, earthquakes, winds, fire, lightning or circumstances beyond the control of the CAMPLUX.
 - f) The water heater is installed by non-qualified personnel.
5. The owner and not the CAMPLUX nor his agent/representative shall be liable for and shall pay for all field charges for labor or other expenses incurred in the removal and/or repair of the water heater or any expense incurred by the Owner in order to repair the water heater.

Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific legal rights and you may also have other rights which may vary from state to state.

Important

Owner should retain this document.

Note: Most tank water heaters eventually leak. Your CAMPLUX water heater should be installed in such a manner that if it should leak, the resulting flow of water will not cause damage to the area in which it is installed.
