

OUR QUALITY GUARANTEE

Little Griddle Innovations has been crafting professional-quality, Stainless Steel outdoor cookware for grilling enthusiasts around the world since 2000. The highest standards in materials and workmanship make our products useful, durable, and beautiful.

When you purchase cookware from Little Griddle, you are buying a product that has been designed, produced, and tested to provide year-round enjoyment for decades to come. We are always working to create the best products possible.

Our Stainless Steel griddles are designed to provide dependable, delicious results, every time you use them. At breakfast, lunch and dinner, cooking outdoors is tasty and fun with Little Griddle cookware, and cleanup is easy, right on the grill.

We are confident that you will love your Little Griddle outdoor cookware, and we guarantee every griddle with a Limited Lifetime Warranty against defects in workmanship. In the unlikely event that you experience a problem related to the manufacturing of your griddle, you may contact us at any time for an equal replacement.

The fine print: Limited Lifetime Warranty applies when product is used as directed and applies to materials and welding construction. Severely overheating griddle may cause metal distortion or warping of griddle, which is not covered by this warranty. Little Griddle Innovations, LLC (“LGI”) supports and recommends the outdoor use of this product only. LGI does not support, warrant or recommend the indoor use of this product, and this products is not intended for indoor use. Both griddle and food contents from cooking are HOT when in use – please exercise caution in operation. Never leave the product unsupervised when in use. Do not allow unsupervised children or pets near the product when in use. In the event that warranty service is required, LGI will replace any defective cookware with items of equal or greater value, at our sole discretion, upon return and inspection of defective cookware.
