DURABLE BRASS GROMMETS

Grommets are keys to make a quality flag. ANLEY always uses durable, nicely polished grommets to ensure the long term use of your flags.
