

Warranty

This item has a warranty that covers against manufacturing defects for a period of 90 days from the date of the sale. The warranty only applies to the original purchaser of the item. The warranty will cover replacement of parts, or in some cases, the entire product, at the manufacturer's discretion.

Please make sure to preserve all documents to show proof of purchase, and carefully inspect the condition of the product prior to and after assembly, for missing, damaged, or defective parts. In the event a defect is found, please do not use the item and immediately notify the manufacturer.

Failure to follow these instructions, misuse, improper assembly, failure to honor a warning, failure to supervise, inspect or maintain the item, or damage to the item, whether intentional or inadvertent, shall void this warranty.

Compliance & Safety

Naomi Home adheres to all applicable testing, labeling, laws, rules and best practices for the health and safety of our customers. Products are tested where applicable by certified labs and inspected prior to shipment by third party inspection.
