Terms Common to All Blue Flame Product Warranties

The following terms apply to all warranties issued for Blue Flame Products:

Always specify model and serial number when contacting the Manufacturer. To make a claim under this warranty, the bill of sale or other proof of purchase must be presented.

This warranty is extended only to the original retail purchaser when purchased from an authorized dealer, and only when installed by a qualified installer in accordance with all local codes and instructions furnished with this product.

This warranty covers the cost of part(s) required to restore this product to proper operating condition and an allowance for labor when provided by a Manufacturer authorized installer. Warranty parts must be obtained through authorized dealers of this product and/or Manufacturer who will provide original factory replacement parts. Failure to use original factory replacement parts voids this warranty.

Travel, handling, transportation, diagnostic, material, labor and incidental costs associated with warranty repairs, unless expressly covered by this warranty, are not reimbursable under this warranty, and are the responsibility of the owner.

Excluded from this warranty are products or parts that fail or become damaged due to misuse, accidents, improper installation, lack of proper maintenance, tampering, or alterations.

This is Manufacturer's exclusive warranty re all Blue Flame products, and to the full extent allowed by law, this express warranty excludes any and all other warranties, express or implied, written or verbal, and limits the duration of any and all implied warranties, including warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose to 1 (one) year on all new products from the date of first purchase. Manufacturer makes no other warranties regarding this product.

Manufacturer's liability is limited to the purchase price of the product, and Manufacturer shall not be liable for any other damages whatsoever under any circumstances including indirect, incidental, or consequential damages.

Some states do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts or the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you.

This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state.
