

EVERSTRIKE JAMB LEG KIT LIMITED WARRANTY STATEMENT

Evermark LLC warrants that this EVERSTRIKE™ product is free from manufacturing defects for a period of 1-year after date of purchase. No other warranties are expressed or implied.

This limited warranty is a 1-time transferrable warranty that protects the original purchaser and the subsequent owner only.

For a warranty claim, the following conditions must be met: Proof of original purchase; installation according to installation guide; standard, normal, residential use; proper painting and sealing on all six (6) sides of product; proper maintenance. If used with a storm door, the proper allowances as specified by the storm door manufacturer must be used.

Costs for removal and re-installation are not covered by this warranty.

If this EVERSTRIKE™ Jamb Leg Kit fails during a qualified forced entry event within the 1-year warranty period, Evermark offers a one-time replacement and will send a new jamb leg to be used with your original hardware.

A qualified forced entry event is a break-in that occurs due to a "human-powered force of impact" causing the EVERSTRIKE™ Jamb Leg (aka: Strike Jamb) to be compromised or broken to gain access to the dwelling.

Evermark reserves the right to determine if the forced entry is covered.

Warranty claims must be made in writing to:
