

Features

- Serious coffee enthusiasts demand a serious coffee mill. Zassenhaus mills are immaculately crafted with durable high carbon steel burrs to provide years of faithful service. For operation, simply pour beans into the top compartment and move the adjustment nut clockwise for a coarser grind, or counterclockwise for a finer grind. With the ability to grind as fine as a Turkish grind, this grinder offers the highest standard in functionality and milling excellence.
- Adjusts from coarse to powder fine grind
- Grounds collect in drawer for easy removal
