

Thank you for buying our plants and sharing in our plant passion!

This plant was hand-picked especially for you. Now as part of your family, it will grow everyday bringing joy and fresh air to your life.

Plant Features

The Pachira tree offers shiny, hand-shaped leaves that lend it a decidedly tropical appearance. You may also see several money trees grown together in a single pot with their trunks braided together. This is common way to make it look more decorative and doesn't harm the plant at all.
