

You only need to follow the instructions to install it smoothly. It is recommended that two or more people assemble it together.

If you need help, please contact us through the Home Depot buyer message system and we will provide worry-free after-sales service.

We warrant the product to be free of manufacturing defects to the original purchaser for 90-day.