

Aspen Flooring warrants its laminate flooring products according to this document and any revisions of this document only. This warranty is not transferable. The warranty covers flooring material as outlined below and reasonable labor costs where applicable. The warranty extends only to the original purchaser of flooring and to flooring in its original installation.

REPAIRS AND OR REPLACEMENT

Aspen Flooring may repair or replace any laminate product in the affected areas only to satisfy obligations of the warranty as needed. A warrantable event does not automatically trigger an entire floor replacement. If, however, full replacement is necessary and the identical flooring is not available, Aspen Flooring will provide a flooring substitute of comparable quality, color, and value. Any replacement product is warranted for the remainder of the original warranty period. If replacement material exhibits problems in the same way as original material, conditions in the space may not properly support use of laminate flooring products. Aspen Flooring always recommends that you maintain extra stock of the flooring from your original installation (minimum one full carton) for future repair or replacements.

COVERAGE/DWELLING TYPE

Residential warranty terms only apply to products installed in owner-occupied residential dwellings such as (single-family homes, condominiums, town houses, etc.). Residential dwellings that are not owner-occupied are not covered by this warranty. If an owner-occupied residential dwelling transitions to a rental unit, the warranty is voided from that date. If a residential premises is ever a rental unit, coverage under the residential warranty terms cannot be established or re-established.

PROFESSIONAL INSTALLATION

Aspen Flooring always recommends that our laminate flooring be professionally installed. Any issues or solutions offered as a remedy by the flooring warranty will not include labor costs when the flooring was not installed by a professional installer or technician. Any installation or quality of workmanship issues should be addressed by/with the retailer from whom the flooring was purchased or the installer or technician who installed the flooring. Aspen Flooring does not warrant installation or installation related claims. Aspen Flooring is not responsible for any labor costs no matter who installed the flooring if/when visibly defective product is installed.

MANUFACTURING DEFECTS WARRANTY

Aspen Flooring warrants that its laminate flooring products shall remain free of manufacturing defects for the period indicated in the table in this document. Manufacturing defects include delamination, variations in thickness, curling, cupping, and dimensional changes not caused by conditions within or around the installed environment. Material with obvious defects that are installed anyway will be deemed acceptable by the owner or installer and will not be considered a manufacturing defect for remedy by the warranty.

PET WARRANTY

Aspen Flooring warrants that our laminate products will resist staining from pets. This would include (domestic dogs and cats only) stains including feces, urine, and vomit are covered for the indicated period specified in this document. This pet warranty is defined as a permanent change in color of the surface of the product after recommended spot cleaning procedures have been utilized using approved cleaning products. Odor emanating from any material between or under flooring is not covered. Aspen Flooring recommended cleaning and maintenance procedures must be attempted prior to remedy consideration by the warranty.

WEAR, STAIN AND FADE WARRANTY

Aspen Flooring warrants that its laminate flooring during normal use will not significantly fade, stain or wear for the indicated period of time specified in the table within this document. Note the following definitions that apply:

- Normal wear in high traffic areas and seating areas and at pivot points, is excluded. Wear must be through the wear layer to the degree that the printed pattern is altered and core material is exposed in an area greater than twelve by twelve inches. Surface scratches, scuffing and reduction of gloss level are considered normal wear and are not considered to be defective product.
- Fade must be to the degree that the floor is permanently discolored to a significant degree. Some degree of fading over time is to be expected.
- The following are excluded from stain warranty coverage: ink, iodine, mercurochrome, betadine, dyes, asphalt, tar, grease, baking grease, cooking oils, and nail polish. Stains or staining is defined as a permanent change in color of the surface of the product caused by common household food and beverages and approved or recommended cleaning products as indicated in our Care and Maintenance Guide.

WATERPROOF WARRANTY

Aspen Flooring warrants its laminate flooring products, where applicable, to be waterproof from topical moisture. The structural integrity of the flooring plank will not be significantly diminished by topical exposure to water. Though the integrity of flooring planks will not be affected by topical moisture, it is possible that when excessive moisture flows between the planks onto the subfloor or into other surrounding structures/building materials or where there is standing water, mold or mildew growth can occur. Laminate planks are not a moisture barrier. This limited warranty excludes damage from mold and mildew growth due to prolonged exposure to moisture. Damage to surrounding structures such as, but not limited to, subfloors, walls, fixtures, furniture, underlayment, moldings, trims or subfloor heating systems is excluded.

This limited warranty does not apply to damage caused by water or moisture in the subfloor or underneath the flooring including damage from subfloor hydrostatic pressure, flood, appliance failure, plumbing leaks, or other conditions that result in water or moisture under the flooring.
