CARE and MAINTENANCE

Pouf Furniture Care

All furniture requires regular maintenance to look its best and the Pouf is no exception. Your Pouf will last long without needing a great deal of attention. Whether you use your Pouf as a footstool, occasional table or casual seating, there are tips that can help keep your Pouf looking good.

To help protect your Pouf, follow these steps:

- Dust regularly with a dry soft cloth.
- Vacuum occasionally with a soft brush attachment.
- Do not use a course brush or scrubbing brush as these can damage the fabric
- Blot spills immediately with a dry cloth.
- If staining occurs, use a soft cloth with warm water.
- Keep your Pouf out of direct sunlight. This will ensure it doesn't fade or discolor.
- Avoid positioning your Pouf too close to any heat source. This will affect the filler and cause upholstery to fade and crack.
- Do not place hot items directly on top of the Pouf.
