long sweeping strokes across the surface, letting it do the work. Light pressure is all that is required for sanding.

Helpful Hints

- Always keep the blade sharp.
- Always ensure the work piece is firmly held or clamped to prevent movement. Any movement of the material may affect the quality of the cutting or sanding finish.
- Excessive force will reduce the working efficiency and cause motor overload. Replacing the accessory regularly will maintain optimum working efficiency.
- Do not start sanding without having the sandpaper attached to sanding platen.
- Use coarse grit paper to sand rough surfaces, medium grit for smooth surfaces and fine grit for the finishing surfaces. If necessary, first make a test run on scrap material.
- Do not allow the sandpaper to wear away, it will damage the sanding pad.
