

Limited Warranty Policy

Home It Inc. warrants and guarantees that the products provided shall be of good quality and free from defects and will be replaced or repair within 30-days of purchase (proof of purchase will be required). Statements and representations made by Home It, or its agent, shall not constitute a warranty of any kind.

What will the company cover a warranty?

If one of our products develop a fault due to a manufacturing defect, we will offer you a replacement part or replacement item without any charges. The company only covers products bought by Home It. So, you can buy from us without any supreme confidence. In case of a warranty claim, do not hesitate to contact us.

What will void the warranty and doesn't cover by Home It?

Any abuse, misuse of the product, failure to follow instructions will void the warranty. The guarantee doesn't cover damage caused by accident, negligence, improper care, or the natural breakdown of colors and material. The warranty is valid when using for regular personal or household use. The warranty also doesn't cover damage caused by other products to our products.

If our product has a manufacturing defect and comes under warranty, contact us as soon as possible so the company can obtain the item in its original form. Any repairing attempt by you or anyone outside the company shall void the warranty.
