

This product can withstand extreme temperatures and can be used in bad weather and daily work. It is extremely durable and if installed correctly, the seal will not crack, dry out, break or shift. This product is quick and easy to install, without screws or nails, saving time. At the same time, you can adjust and cut freely according to the actual situation. To better fit the size of the door.