Pothos

Epipremnum Species

Epipremnum is a beautiful and easy to care for house plant that is also referred to as Devil's Ivy or Pothos.

Indoor plant

65°–75°

✓ Success Tips

This highly adaptable and easy to grow house plant is perfect for any beginner. It can grow in varying light conditions and is happiest in shaded areas or indirect light.

Epipremnum is a perfect plant for your home or office because of how well it purifies the air around you. This plant does not like soggy soil so you should allow the soil to dry out in between waterings.

This fast growing plant may need pruning quickly as it grows like crazy! Propagate extra roots in a vase full of water for more plant babies.
