

Just measure the length of your window's outer frame, and cut the shade to the right size.